

Educational Scholarship

(2011 Application)

As part of its continuing commitment to higher education, East River Federal Credit Union is offering 4 - $500 Scholarships to its membership.

Awards:

- 4 - $500.00 Scholarships
 - The four scholarships will be awarded to:
 - 1 – Madison High School graduating senior
 - 3 – Graduating seniors or currently enrolled full-time college, university, or vocational students.

Qualifications:

- The scholarships are open to high school seniors or currently enrolled full-time college, university, or vocational students, who are applying for or have been accepted for admission to an accredited college, university, or vocational school.
- Applicant must have a minimum overall grade point average of 2.0 or above.
- Scholarship applicant must be a current member (for at least one year), in good standing, of East River Federal Credit Union.

Requirements:

- Completed scholarship application.
- Typed essay (500 words or less). College graduates are often faced with thousands of dollars in student loans and major credit card debt upon graduation from college. "How do you plan to prepare yourself for the financial road ahead? In what ways could your credit union help you prepare?"
- Leadership/Volunteerism/Extracurricular Activities – Please list volunteer/community service and any extracurricular/school activities you have participated in, and/or jobs you have had including the dates of those activities. List offices held and depth of involvement. (Please list on a separate sheet of paper.)
- Two letters of reference from a teacher, counselor, employer, or community leader.
- College acceptance letter or proof of enrollment at a college, university, or vocational school (e.g. bill, schedule). If you have not yet received a letter of acceptance, obtain a letter from your counselor stating the name of the college, university, or vocational school and the date your application for admission was mailed.
- A recent photo for use in East River FCU promotional materials.

Judging Criteria

Scholarship selection will be based on the following criteria:
