Hey Kids,

Thanks for all the hilarious money jokes! I just love reading them. I've posted a few on my fridge and a few below for you to enjoy. If you're reading this, it is April. April is a special month for me! April 25th is World Penguin Day, and April is National Credit Union Youth Month! Be sure to check if your credit union is having fun activities for you throughout the month to help you save. More about that on the back. I am saving for a new comic book and I'm helping Kiwi save for college and Sheldon save for his first chemistry set! What are you saving for?

Your Friend,

Pee Wee
